REVIEW : Your conversation with [redacted] FDD, 23 April 1957,
 Subject: Publication of "Survey of the Soviet Press"

1. At the request of OME, OCI, and other CIA and IAC offices, Foreign Documents Division has started producing a report entitled "Survey of the Soviet Press."

STAT A pilot issue of this report was published on 26 April 1957 as an [redacted] Information Report in a most timely fashion through your cooperation.

2. At the request of consumers, subsequent issues are intended to be published in FDD Summary form.

It is understood that you have agreed to expedite printing of this report and dissemination each Monday on a weekly schedule under the following conditions:

- a. That it contain no more than 50 pages.
- b. That distribution is limited to 100.
- c. That the Duplinat masters for each issue be delivered to your "K" Building branch office no later than noon each Thursday.
- 3. FDD will comply with the above conditions, with the understanding that any deviation on our part will result in delay of publication.

4. I would like to take this opportunity to thank you for your very valuable personal attention to our recent problems and assure you that we are continually studying methods on our part to more efficiently work with your Division.
